HIGHLINE
COLLEGE

60,000 high-skilled agriculture jobs are predicted to be created each year in the U.S., with only 35,000 graduates to meet this demand. If you are interested in growing food, landscape design, sustainability, and the outdoors, the Agriculture profession could be for you!

CAREERS

The Urban Agriculture Program at Highline College prepares students to be successful in a variety of Agriculture related career fields including:

- ▶ Farm Management
- ▶ Small Business Management
- ▶ Edible and Sustainable Landscaping
- ▶ Government Organizations
- ▶ Non-profit Organizations
- ▶ International Relief Organizations
